It is the freemen and freeholders of the Town of Hull at a publicke Towne meetinge upon a free and full debate concerning the preservation & best improvement of a wood yott betwene the proprietors of the Towne, have resolved upon the question & voted

First that whatsoever hath bene hertofore voted altered or done in this matter shall bee null void & of none effect

2) That all the wood and timber both pine oaks wallnutt or any other kind of wood either dry or greene firs or firs growinge upon all Common Land within the Towne of Hull shall be divided by valuation upon the Land where upon it lies or growes and appropriated by severall due proportions in a way of division in maner followinge: that is to say unto Every freeholder or that hath two Lotts through out two Lotts of wood by equal proportion unto Every freeholder or that hath a Lott and a halfe a Lott a halfe of wood to Every freeholder or that hath one Lott one Lott of wood And such as are not free holders or proprietors of any Lott is granted as followeth To Abraham Jones one Lott of wood To John Jones halfe a Lott To Joseph Jones Charles Campbell to John Boulton Junior to Robert Bombs to Samson Shore to Benjamin Bosworth Junr to Nathaniel Bosworth to Christopher Wharton to Samuall Baker to David Birchoo each one halfe a Lott accordinge to the aforesaid valuation & proportion

3) That the wood shall bee divided at least by two divisions and that noe priort of pine or other wood upon the long bench betwene paynt allerton & whitham shall have any liberty to fell or cutt downe any tree or wood within tenne rods at least off the outside of the wood within the grassy bench but that these woods & trees be left to stand and grow for the security of the Land from the violence of the winds and furies: And if any priort of wood there shall transgress this condition of his ground he shall bee liable to pay to the publicke Use five shillings off for every such offence which shall bee recoverable by law as in any other case off trespass & damage actionable

4) That it is intended & by this act firmly & forever determined that this division and grant off wood to any person or persons nominated as granters doth not give any title interest or privilege to any off them or to any other priort unto any the Land upon where the wood thus granted off by stand or grow but the Land lyeth in Common unto the proprietors of the Towne & in such and such only who have a full Lott or Lotts as above described neither are those persons above nominated to layne any further priviledge in the improvement of the Common Land either by pasturings or other waies but the wood only before granted

5) That noe priort off any division off wood shall Enclose the Common Land on which his wood lyeth or stand off in any way kind or the Common Improvement off it for pasture to the Towne but it shall bee remaine close & free from all incumbrances until the publicke use hertofore the wood only appropriated

6) That those of the halfe Lott men before mentioned by name what in a wood or land any of them have cutt upon the Common that wood for Cutt shall bee sold or thrown as far much by valuation in his discretion as if it were standing And that Every one before mentioned as proprietors of wood shall bee present to the bound & to receive his proportion that hee may certainly know what it is yott

7) That those divisions of wood shall bee distributed by Lott that is to say into the Lott by themselves & the halfe Lott men by themselves

88 That the divisions of wood remaine to every man as his proper good & that therefore all damages and trespasses committed and committed as in all other cases according to the nature & degree of the offence

That notwithstanding all above written it shall bee in the liberty of the proprietors to remove as much as they shall see most of the Common wood.
Betweene payntes allerton & whitthorpe for the publique use of the Towne for the maintenance of the poore from year to year & that the same shall have way liberty to cut or improve any of that wood or timber for reference for his private use

These above mentioned particulars have bene reade againe and againe in the audience of the Freeholders at a publique meeting at the Free holders this twenty fourth of March one thousand six hundred seventy one or seventy two were voted by them with generall consent none appearing to the contrary

It was at the same time voted that Doctor Besworth Thomas Pollard John Loringe John Lobell George victriss and John Bonson Senior are the men appointed to make the fore mentioned divisions by valuation of wood and that they begin the twenty third of ^{March} above said And that the fifth the charges of the former layings out and made ways by the fore mentioned vote shall bee paid together with the charges of the former layings out by the whole Towne by way of rate It was at the same time voted that these six men above mentioned have power to determine how much of the pine woods shall bee which are reserved for the poore. finis

MATERIAL TOWARDS THE HISTORY OF HULL.

Hull Petition presented 3 March, 1675.

To the honoured Counsell now assembled at Boston :

The petition off your poore petitioners humbly sheweth, that Whereas the Lord by his prouidence hath cast vs to haue our abode as inhabitants in this towne of Hull, in this iuncture of time, where in both this place as well as the Whole Country is Exposed to the wastinge ffury off the most barbarous heathen, Which wee are sensible off, and therefore ffree willinge to spend our care, our strength, yea, Wee hope our very liues, in, and for the defense off this place, and the Country, yet, beinge persons whose sole employment is ffishinge, and soe att sea, hauinge noe lands, nor Cattle to mayntayne ourselues, or families, but what wee must haue hitherto done by the blessinge of God on our Labours produced from the sea; beinge therefore now Comanded by our Cheife officer, not to goe forth on our imploy, desired then to know, how Wee and ours shall bee maytayned, they hauinge a year's prouision aforehand, Wee none; they hauinge cattle to giue milke to theire families in the summer, Wee none; they hauinge Cattle and swine to kill for meate, Wee none; soe that Wee are like to bee put to Extremity, both Wee and ours; ffor they will not supply Vs.

Therefore our humble request to the honoured Counsell is, that your honours Would please to take our sadd Condission into your Christian and Charitable consideration, that iff wee must be Constrayned to leaue our imploy and not goe to sea, but bee kept here to garison the Towne, that then your Honourr would please to gratifie this our Wee hope but reasonable request, that Wee and ours may bee prouided for, or liberty to follow our imploy, hauinge not here but our persons, and some of Vs it may bee a house, but nothings to maytayne Vs but what our hands with god's blessinge must bring Vs; in an thus Crauinge Excuse for our boldnesse, by troublinge your Honours in this iuncture of time, wherein Wee are sensible you are pressed with many other more wighty affayres, hopinge & humbly desiringe, that off your Clemency, you will attribute this our thus troublinge you to our present Vrgent necessity, Wee in all humblenesse desiringe the good Lord off Heauen, in this & in all your affayres, to guide you, Wee take leaue to rest,

Hull Saturday the 26th 1822 This day Joseph Foster Master of the Schooner Leo of Boston from Elizabeth City N. C. for Boston notes his protest with me as there is no Notary Publick, no Justice of the peace in the town that he left Ocracock-bar on Wednesday the second day of January for Boston with a Cargo of Mbl. & Hhd. Staves & heading, that on the 5th of Jan^y experienced a heavy Gale from N. W. lost part of the deck load & jib-boom with the sail laying too on the 9th Jan^y heavy Gale from the N. W. made much water, likewise on the 14th a heavy Gale from the N. by E. to N. W. with snow, made ice fast, on 15th Jan^y arrived at Holmes hole in Martha's Vineyard.
& Left the Vineyard on Monday the 21st and arrived at Georges Island in Boston Harbour, came too with the best bower on Tuesday the 22^d at 7 P. M. thick & dark with a lite Air at S. S. W. on Wednesday the 23^d at 7 P. M. the wind came to the W. N. W. & N. W. heavy Gale let go the small anchor & veared away upon the best bower nearly the whole of it Ice made in so fast that our windluffs & Cable soon became solid with ice all hands employed in cutting ice on Thursday 24th the Gale still continued and very cold loaded with ice at 10 A. M. struck adrift with a heavy body ice drifted $\frac{1}{2}$ mile & brought up again at 11 A. M. parted both cables in a large body of ice run up the jib to get out of the ice her cables then drawing upon the ice was obliged to cut them from the bowsot the foresail and top sail, cut & jumpd the ice from the bows so as to get through the thickest and then was in hope to get into Hull but ^{the} Ice coming in so far to the leeward and still more in the way that she fell to the leeward and went on to the N. W. side of Hull point,

N.B. said Foster has been on to Hingham to the Notary as there was none in this town but he was absent at Boston and a protest could not be entered there.

Hymn

In days of yore, a pilgrim band Came o'er the great wide sea - Far from their homes and native land To enjoy their liberty.

It was on that bright and holy day,
The sacred day of God -
That here our fathers found their way,
And on this pathos trod.

This day two hundred years have fled Since first they landed here - Though long been numbered with the dead, Their spirits hover near.

Two hundred years - these holy men Stood where we stand to day And on this spot uncultured then Began to praise and pray.

Here Warcham led his little flock, Their grateful thanks to pay -
And on the great eternal Rock, Their future hopes to stay.

And Maverick here with holy zeal Their fainting hopes sustained And taught them while their cares they feel Their Almighty Saviour reigned.

And here the church with holy love Around their pastors thronged - While strains of praise like those above,
The sacred time prolonged.

Thus on this wild and rocky shore, Begirt with the blue wave -
 The pilgrims did their God adore, And felt his power to save.

God of our fathers! from thy throne
 In heavenly mercy shine - Oh may we trust in thee alone
 And be forever thine

Hymn by Mr. Leeds.

Two centuries have rolled away
 The interesting day has come;
 'Twas on this memorable day,
 The pilgrims made this land their home

On yonder deep their sliding bark, Approached this spreading shore;
 They land, ~~they~~ join, they kneel, - & hark
 In prayer & praises they adore.

'Twas Wareham, Maverick & their flock From fires of persecution fled;
 'Twas here they worshipp'd, here they spoke,
 And here religious freedom spread -

Their offering rose like incense pure,
 And reached the heavenly throne of grace,
 And God vouchsafed his mercies sure,
 To them & to their numerous race.

The rolling surf was then as now,
 The sea, the beach, are still the same;
 And we as they, to God would hew,
 And here his constant love proclaim.

1850
Our Father God! now here our prayer
To Thee the earnest voice we raise;
Oh make this heritage thy care
This land a temple for thy praise.

This writing sheweth an agreement between the town of Hull on the one part and Abraham Townes of the same town on the other part for the fencing of the uske from Lincolne castle: that is to say the said Abraham is to fence the uske from a rock in the sea to the pond called strait pond: over that place commonly called Simons turne and at the upper futes and the lower futes: and to make it sufficient and to maintain it from time to time: for which in consideration he that is to say the above said Abraham Townes is to have of the town the use of four cowes commonly on the uske for him or his so longe as he or his make good or performe this agreement

(August)
1591 1591 to 1601

At a generall meetinge of the proprietors and freeholders of the town of Hull where in they havinge considered the great necessity of clearinge thire common of Saines and after much debate they do mutually agree to establish a townes order that which followeth viz

It is ordered by the freeholders and proprietors of the town of Hull that every man shall cleave his both of saines as they have bin formerly laid out unto him for wood looke that is to say he that hath but a single lot shall cleave halfe of one division within one yeare time and he that hath more shall cleave more proportionably: that is he that hath two lots shall cleave one lot in one division within one yeare time: and so from yeare to yeare till the whole be cleared the yeare beginninge at the 29 of September next

Also it is agreed upon and ordered that the saines next the sea upon rocky hill: and upon that rocky hill next Simons turne be left for the use of the town: till they see cause to order other wise only in case when whose lots fall in with these saines or not more obliged to the clearinge thir of them other men

Also it is further ordered that if any person heaver concerned shall neglect his dutie in clearinge his proportion yearly as is above expressed: he shall for every monthes neglect after yearly expiration be liable to pay five shillings amoult monthly to the select men then in beinge from time to time for the use of the town and if any man shall refuse to pay upon such neglect the select men shall issue out thire warrant to the constable to distraine the aforesaid penalty of five shillings from every such person or persons proportionably accordinge to what is ainst due for every man to cleave: he that hath a double lot not forgettinge his two shillings for his yearly neglect and half a crown to him that hath but one lot and so proportionably

It is also agreed upon and ordered hereby that every man cleave his second division first This agreement and order doth equally and alike bind and oblige all and every person hereafter concerned to cleave all to the town and not to leave any sprigs remaining: and also that they gather all they cut on heapes and burn them

Abraham Townes is to cut and cleave Simons turne for his share and proportion for a further

This order was generally voted on the affirmative by the proprietors to be a standing order and to be entered in the town booke till they see cause otherwise to order

The Town Clerk of Haver erroneously entered the marriage of Thomas Lombard April 4 1720 as m'd to Elizabeth Vickere, it should be to Elizabeth Bimney, as Rev L. Whitman, who had them, returned to Supreme Ct records Boston which see He returned H. date Apr 5 1720.
